Prayer of Confession

Lord, we humbly come before you today and ask for your forgiveness. We have too often allowed other affections to become more worthy of our time, our energy, our resources, and more. We devote ourselves to temporary endeavors in the expectation that they will bring us delight. But there is nothing more worthy of our praise than you. You alone are holy, righteous, and eternal. Forgive us and direct us, with the help of the Holy Spirit, to delight in you and live fully for the glory of your name. Amen.
